

Veteran, Vintage and Classic Motorcycles at Charterhouse

There are over 150 motorcycles being sold by Charterhouse at the Haynes Motor Museum, Sparkford on Thursday 14th March.

“The market for motorcycles remains strong and we have bikes entered into the auction from across England,” commented Richard Bromell. “We have been at Haynes for several years now and whilst there is plenty of live internet bidding we always have a great turnout there for the auction.”

Motorcycles in the sale date from a 1919 Humber see below:-

1919 Humber 6hp

Through to modern sports bikes including a 2004 Ducati 998 Matrix Reloaded.

2004 Ducati 998 Matrix Reloaded

There are motorcycles by manufacturers across the world with a great selection of British, American and European bikes and even one from Russia. With values from £500 to £60,000 there is something for ever enthusiast with the estimates totalling nearly £1million

1972 MV Agusta 750GT from a collection of bikes all being sold without reserve

Viewing details, lot listings and live internet bidding is available on www.charterhouse-auction.com

Charterhouse are now accepting entries for their forthcoming specialist auctions of automobilia & enamel signs, classic cars, sporting items, pictures, watches and Asian art.

Richard Bromell and the Charterhouse Team can be contacted for advice and valuations at The Long Street Salerooms, Sherborne, 01935 812277 or via rb@charterhouse-auction.com