

Big Healey at Charterhouse Classic Car Auction

The Charterhouse sale on Saturday 20th September of classic cars, motorbikes and automobilia includes a particularly fine Austin Healey 3000 which has had nearly £40,000 spent on it over the years restoring it to better than showroom condition.

“The car is resplendent in Old English White sitting pretty on wire wheels and is well detailed with accessories such as the period chrome bullet wing mirrors.” Commented Matthew Whitney, specialist in charge. “Austin Healeys have always had a loyal following and this one will no doubt provide many good years of classic motoring for the new buyer – especially if you bear in mind inexpensive classic car insurance, excellent spares availability, a great club scene and best of all free road tax!”

Charterhouse is now accepting further entries for their two auctions in September with clocks, militaria and collectors’ items on the 12th and the sale on the 20th of classic cars, motorbikes & automobilia.
