

Regimental Badges Come to Charterhouse

A collection of regimental badges are being sold by Charterhouse in Sherborne in their militaria, medals, coins and stamp auction on 29th August.

“They are well presented having all been set onto frames backed in green baize which really makes them stand out,” commented Richard Bromell.

Regimental badges from the Somerset collector being sold

The badges were collected by the Somerset owners' late father who served with The Parachute Regiment during The Second World War. Having retired, he would go to auctions, antiques fairs and even junk shops to hunt out the badges.
